

Genesis 15:1-18

10.4.20

Big Idea: God can be trusted in the gaps.

Point #1: The gaps lead us to _____ . (Vs. 1-5, 8)

Takeaway #1: Ask questions in order to _____ your _____ in God.

Point #2: The gaps lead us to _____ on God's _____. (Vs. 4-7, 13-16)

Takeaway #2: Have promises that you can _____ on in the gaps.

Takeaway #3: Fuel trust in God with _____ of how He's been faithful.

Point #3: God _____ his _____ in the gaps. (vs. 8-11, 17-18)

Follow-Up Questions:

- What are some things that you have experienced or are currently experiencing that cause you to ask, “Can I really trust God?”
- What are some of the questions you’ve wrestled with before or after coming to faith? How have you seen God use questions to grow your faith?
- What promises in scripture are most encouraging to you? When do you find yourself leaning on these promises?
- What are some past gaps that caused you to question God’s trustworthiness? How did he show himself faithful and trustworthy in those times?
- What are some other things or people that you put your trust in to help you make it through difficult situations? How have you seen these things or people “drop” you at times?
- Have you had any times where it felt like God “dropped” you? As you look back now, do you still feel like he dropped you? Why or why not?
- Why would you say it’s Good News that God’s trustworthiness doesn’t depend on us?